ABOUT USO

United Schools Organisation of India (USO) is one of the country's oldest and most distinguished non-governmental organizations in the field of education. Since its establishment in 1951, USO has been dedicated to enhancing the quality of education and fostering holistic development among students and educators across India.

With a strong network of member schools, including special schools, USO conducts national-level competitions, extracurricular programs, teacher training, conferences, and awareness campaigns on critical global issues. Our initiatives cover areas such as extra-curricular education, sustainability, leadership, and inclusivity, ensuring that students and teachers are equipped with essential skills for the future.

As we celebrate 75 years of impact, USO remains committed to empowering all schools, educators, and students—creating a strong foundation for a brighter, more informed, and socially responsible generation.
